
Overview of Residential Education

Student Success at the University of South Florida (USF) is a preeminent organization that inspires learning and transforms the lives of students for lifelong success. Student Success provides learning opportunities and environments for students to discover, integrate, and apply new knowledge that increases their capacity for personal growth, responsible citizenship, and ethical leadership.

Guided by the direction of Student Success, Residential Education at the University of South Florida provides a safe community, groundbreaking initiatives, and quality high-impact services and practices that contribute to residential student success. Our dynamic residential experience produces proud USF alumni

- ◁ Ensure that all Residential Education Staff see value in the goals of the department's resource centers and feel connected to the Residential Curriculum through the support of the Residential Student Success Assistants and initiatives

- Develop a working knowledge of Housing & Residential Education and other university departments to insure proper administration of departmental and university policies and procedures.
- Demonstrate and continuously improve effective communication, planning, and organizational skills as they relate to job responsibilities.
- Attend weekly Residential Education Staff meetings and other meetings as necessary.
- Complete other duties as assigned.

Compensation

The Graduate Assistant for Residential Student Success is a live-on position that receives a competitive stipend of approximately $16,000 per 12 months (before tax) and a tuition waiver for up to nine (9) graduate credit hours per semester (not including fees) g0 G(a)TJET@.00000912 0 612 92 reW*BT/F32 TfBT/F32 Tf1